I hope you're well. I've been out of the office for a few days but want to get back to you.

There are many types of grants that department has. The one that our current proposal seeks has no deadline.

The larger grants with application deadline could apply to a bigger music festival focus Melrose event in the future.

Just want to make sure that I'm answering your question correctly, were you just questioning funding for our literary crawl or additional ?

For the literary crawl I just need a paragraph description of the events that I will forward to cultural affairs to get the ball rolling.
